NO INQUEST TO BE HELD INTO GARRISON'S DEATH

Post Mortem Sufficient to Determine Cause of Demise

BOYD FOUND IN FIELD

Robbery Theory to be Investigated by Westmoreland County Authorities

No inquest will be held into the death of James Garrison, 60, the well-known North Belle Vernon real estate dealer whose body was found in a field near his home early Wednesday morning. The first theory was that the man had been murdered but a post-mortem examination exploded this. His pockets were empty when found and a rigid investigation of supposed robbery will be made by Westmoreland county authorities.

Mrs. Garrison, who with her daughter, Mabel, are the only survivors, says that when her husband left the house he had in his pocket at least $400. It is believed that he died from heart trouble, from which he suffered and was robbed during the night of his money and his watch.

Garrison's mysterious death caused considerable excitement in this neighborhood, where he is well known. He had ruptured a blood vessel July 5 in a street car accident near Castle Shannon. While boarding a local car at Monessen Tuesday evening he lost his footing and fell to the running board of the summer car he was boarding. This may have aggravated the trouble. Friends say that he had complained on Tuesday of not feeling well.

A postmortem was held Wednesday by Deputy Coroner H. W. Day of Westmoreland County; Dr. Cramer of Monessen, and Dr. J. W. Gordon of Belle Vernon. They sent the dead man's heart to Pittsburgh for an examination. The examination revealed serious affection of the heart.

The funeral of Mr. Garrison will be held with services at the M. E. church, Belle Vernon, at 2 o'clock Friday.

Feeney Is Not an Organizer

Ex-Assemblyman Declares United Mine Worker's Job is Not for Him

William Feeney a member of the last legislature is not a national organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, at least not if he knows himself. This morning announcement was made in a telegram from Indianapolis that Mr. Feeney had been appointed to that position by National President White. Mr. Feeney contradicted it. He said that far from being a national organizer he was the representative of the United Mine Workers Journal in this district, having taken up the work on August 1. Mr. Feeney is one of the best known miners in the national organization. He was a teller at the last convention and was instrumental in the counting of votes.

PHILLIPS TO REDS

Charleroi Man May Become Manager of Cincinnati Nationals

HE HAS HAD EXPERIENCE

Inside information is that next year the Cincinnati Reds of the National League will have Bill Phillips of Charleroi as their pilot. Manager Garry Hermann is on the lookout for a man who will bring the bunting to the Ohio town and is said to consider Bill Phillips the first best man.

Hermann and Phillips are close friends, the latter having been the mainstay of the Reds pitching staff for several seasons. Hermann is said to have been attracted to Bill by the wonderful records that individual has been making since managing in the minors.

It has been well known by every follower of the national game that Hermann is dissatisfied with the showing made by his Reds this season. Clark Griffiths has been the managers, but it is said he sacrifices real baseball for speed.

Phillips managed successfully the East Liverpool team in the O and P league and the Wheeling team in the Central league. He is managing Youngstown this year in the O and P. He landed buntings for both the East Liverpool and Wheeling teams and has his Youngstown team in second place this year.

With Phillips at the helm and plenty of money to back him Cincinnati could land a winning team. Phillips has played ball 24 years and served his time in the big league. About the only other man mentioned thus far in the advantage of him in that he has had considerable ability at managing whereas Young has had none.

FIREMEN'S PARADE FEATURE OF WEEK

Forty Companies in Parade Dress Participate-- Officers Elected at Business Session Wednesday

Today is the big day at the Firemen's convention at Monongahela, the chief features being the parade this afternoon in which about 40 companies participated. All were in parade dress. Capt. E. W. Hartland was chief marshal.

J. B. McCune of Donora presented a bill Wednesday to be put on the minutes of the association to be presented to the next Legislature. It provides that firemen be exempt from personal and poll tax only when they have been in continuous active service from three to five years.

The following officers were elected: President, Samuel Steel, Wilkinsburg; vice presidents, J. J. McFadden, Stowe township, Allegheny county; George L. Ebner, Carnegie; Mark P. Roberts, Carrick; secretary, W. H. Sharrah, Braddock; treasurer, James H. Steel, Wilkinsburg; delegate to state convention at York, Samuel Cunningham; alternate, Alexander M. Lea, Wilkinsburg.

The motor boat regatta Wednesday afternoon was a feature. At midnight the "Ancient Order of Hoots" and the Ku Klux Klan gave a parade of owls and goblins.

MONEY IS DONATED

School Board Appropriates $100 to Carry on Playgrounds Work

The sum of $100 was appropriated by the school board at a meeting held Wednesday evening to be used by the Playgrounds association for carrying on playground work. The amount was the first donated by the school board for the playgrounds. Council appropriated $300 before the playgrounds were opened. All members of the school board were present with the exception of J. M. Hill.

The matter of supplementary readers for the schools was taken up and a number of readers ordered.

Owing to the fact, it is stated, that the tax collector's bond was not properly made out, it was not accepted, but will be taken up at a later date, after corrections have been made.

DEEDS RECORDED FOR LOCAL PROPERTY

Deeds have been filed for record at the recorder's office at Washington as follows:

August 5, 1911—Mary Sajos of Charleroi, and Andy Sajdos to Mary Sajdos and Stephen Sainar, of Charleroi, Lot No 7 in McGowan, Allen & Colvin plan on Lincoln avenue; consideration $1,000.

August 1911—Margaret E. Spence and husband of Saint John county, Kansas, to John Uhlman of North Charleroi, lot of ground on Water street, North Charleroi; consideration $1,700.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR MISS PARSONS

August ninth was the birthday of Miss Georgene Parsons and her little niece Edna Georgene Bowers, and the event was fittingly celebrated with a theatre party at the Palace Theatre and refreshments at Wagner's. The affair was a surprise arranged by Miss Parsons' mother and sisters. The guests who were the most intimate girl friends of those in whose honor the party was given, met at Miss Parsons' home, went to the theatre and afterwards to Wagner's where a lunch consisting of cake, ice cream and candy was served. The ice was moulded in the form of candles which were lighted when served. Later in the evening they returned to the home, and one of the young ladies, who has made a study of palmistry, read the fortune of each guest.

Benefit Game Draws Well.

The benefit game between the Managers and the Executive Members drew a good sized crowd to the ball ground Wednesday evening and a snug sum was realized. The report will be made later of the money cleared, the funds to be used by the Associated Board of Charities for carrying on work among the poor.

Frye of Charleroi president of the reunion association has appointed committees for the affair, and has sent out notices announcing the reunion. The committees are:

The Frye family is one of the oldest and best known in Western Pennsylvania, and the decendents of Benjamin and Christina Frye number several hundred.

Benjamin and Christina Frye settled in Frederick county, Virginia more than a century ago, when that country was a wilderness. Their children settled largely not far from the place of their birth, but today their decendents are much scattered, with the largest portion of the family in Western Pennsylvania.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE TO PREPARE FOR STATE

Lloyd Carson, one of the graduates this spring of the Charleroi High School has enrolled as a student at the New Bloomfield Academy, to prepare for State College. Carson was the captain of the track team of the Charleroi High School this spring which won the interscholastic field meet. Prof. D. C. Willard, last year the Charleroi High School principal, is principal of the New Bloomfield Academy.

FIRMEN AT CONVENTION; MONESSEN HOME BURNED

Repairs at Lock No. 3 Complete

United States Steamer Slackwater Moves to Lock No. 2

United States Steamer Slackwater this week went from Lock No. 3, at Elizabeth where repairs have just been completed to Lock No. 2, to do similar repair work there. The system at Lock No. 3 is now in the best of shape. Some time will likely be spent at Lock No. 2 making repairs to the locks and wickets. A new guide crib is in course of construction and will be put in place.

United States Dredge No. 1 has been fitted out with a new boiler at the government boat yards at North Charleroi and will resume work at Lock No. 1. United States Steamer Swan has returned from an excursion up the Monongahela river as far as Fairmont. Government officials were aboard on a tour of inspection.

VAUDEVILLE AT PICNIC

New Feature Arranged for the Business Men's Outing

PERFORMER IS BOOKED

As a special feature at this year's picnic of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, vaudeville attractions will be furnished at Eldora Park. On Wednesday W. C. Clark who is in charge of the matters of entertainment booked Eno McSeaton a flying trapeze and Roman ring performer to give exhibitions at the park afternoon and evening.

McSeaton's act is performed, it is stated, about 20 feet above ground and such a thing as a net is unknown to him. His act has been described by those who have seen him as a daredevil feat. McSeaton is a western boy and belongs to a family of performers. His father and mother were both performers.

The idea of having vaudeville at the business men's picnic is a new one. Committees are getting all matters in readiness for the outing to be held next Wednesday. Posters and bills have been placed in different towns along the valley and a big crowd is expected. Plenty of entertainment will be furnished at the park.

Karl Keffer and H. W. Thirkeld, staff correspondents of the Pittsburgh Dispatch were in Charleroi a short while this morning and called on friends here.

Notice.

A reward of $25.00 will be paid to any person or persons furnishing information leading to the arrest and conviction of any one found trespassing on reservoir property.

FAMILY ABSENT AT PICNIC

Loss of Between $7,000 and $8,000 Realized—Building and Contents Insured.

While Mrs. Meyer Miller and members of her family were at Eldora Park Wednesday evening enjoying the picnic of the Hebrew Association of the valley, their home at Monessen was burned. The fire, starting at about 9 o'clock, was of unknown origin.

All the firemen but two of the Monessen department were at Monongahela attending the firemen's convention there it is stated, and when the alarm was rung, it required the services of volunteers to fight the conflagration. The building was owned by Mrs. Libby Kramer, a widow woman of Monessen.

Full insurance was carried on the building by Mrs. Kramer, it is stated, and on the contents by Mrs. Miller. The damage will amount to $7,000 or $8,000.

ITALIANS PROVE ST DEPOSITORS IN POSTAL BANK

Italians are the best depositors in the postal savings bank which was recently established at Canonsburg, according to the Canonsburg Notes. It says:

"The 'gooda Italia man' is beginning to bring forth his money from trunk and sock and deposit it with Uncle Sam in his local postal savings bank. Circulars printed in foreign languages, explaining the workings of the new banking system, were received by postmaster T. M. Reese last week and these have been distributed among the foreign speaking patrons of the local postoffice. To date Italians are the heaviest depositors. Some of these people, however, are not altogether pleased with the workings of the postal banking system. They want to deposit more than the government allows, that is, no depositor can put in more than $100 in any calendar month. Some of the foreign speaking people deposited $100 in July and $100 in August. Now they must wait until September before making another deposit."

An Unnecessary Adjunct!

The Pittsburgh papers in reporting the doings at Camp Wiley entirely overlooked another camp that was pitched in close proximity to the soldier boys and that has headquarters for a company of well we'll call 'em Amazons—their proper appellation would not look well in a family paper.—Blairsville Courier.

NOURISHING BREAD.

The council of the Bread and Food
Reform Leagues of England has issued a manifesto directing attention
to the importance of using a more
nourishing bread than ordinary fine
wheat bread, especially as food for
children. "Chemistry proves," says
the council "that the whole of the
wheat grain contains more nutriment
than the part usually made into fine
white flour. Experiments made on the human digestion in America confirm the statements of the Bread and
Food Reform League that more protein—flesh-forming material—can be
assimilated from whole wheat meal
when it is ground to a uniform fineness than when coarsely ground,
while experiments in Germany show that from 600 grammes of finely
ground wheat meal the body assim-
ilated nearly two and a half times
more of the mineral substances which
form bones and teeth, and which
nourish the brain, nerves and tissues
than from a similar weight of fine
white flour."

FUN IN THE HOME.

Whatever your lot in life, keep joy
with you, says Orison Sweet Marsden
in Success Magazine. It is a great
healer. Sorrow, worry, jealousy,
envy, bad temper, create friction and
grind away the delicate human machinery so that the brain loses its cum-ber.

Half the misery in the world would
be avoided if the people would make
a business of having plenty of fun at
home instead of running everywhere
else in search of it.

"Now For Rest and Fun." "No Business Troubles Allowed Here."
These are good home building mot-
toes.

When you have had a perplexing
day, when things have gone wrong
with you and you go home at night
exhausted, discouraged blue, instead
of making your home miserable by
going over your troubles and trials

just bury them. Instead of dragging
them home and making yourself and
your family unhappy with them and spoiling the whole evening, just lock everything that is disagreeable in
your office.

Just resolve that your home shall be
a place for bright pictures and pleasant memories, kindly feelings toward
everybody and "a corking good time"
generally. If you do this you will be surprised to see how your vocation or
business wrinkles will be ironed out
in the morning and how the crooked
things will be straightened.

Civilizing The Indian.

The following is from "The Soul of the Indian," a book by Dr. Charles
Alexander Eastman, himself an Indian:
"Long before I ever heard of Christ
or saw a white man I had learned from an untutored uncle the essence of morality. With the help of dear nature herself she taught me the things simply but of mighty import. I knew God.
I perceived what goodness is. I saw
and loved what is really beautiful. Civilization has not taught me anything
better. As a child I understood how to give. I have forgotten that grace since I became civilized. I liked the natural life, whereas I now live the artificial.
Any pretty pebble was valuable to me
then, every growing thing an object of reverence. Now I worship with the white man before a painted landscape whose value is painted in dollars. Thus
the Indian is reconstructed, as the natural rocks are ground to powder and
made into artificial blocks which may be built into the walls of modern society."

Bigness of Big Ben.

Big Ben, which marks the hours for
parliament at the top of the clock tower
at Westminster, is bigger than it appears from below. Looking at the dial
of Big Ben from the northern footway
of Great George street or from the Thames embankment, it appears as if
its diameter might be equal to the
space that a man of medium size could cover with outstretched arms. As a matter of fact, however, the diameter
of the dial is twenty-three feet. From the ground the minute marks on the
dial look like ordinary minute marks
and as if they were close together.
Really they are a foot apart. The numerals are two feet long. The minute hand, with its counter balance—the
heavy piece of metal that projects beyond the center of the dial—is fifteen feet in length. This hand is so massive
that during a snowstorm the clock is
sometimes retarded by the weight of
the flakes that alight on it.—London
Mail.

He Took the Cue.

He was a man who gave little and
got much. Today, for instance, he had
got a clothes brush, a basin of water,
a towel and a shiue, and he had given
nothing at all.

Tr-r-r-r-r! went his bedroom bell.
The hotel attendant smiled sourly.
This was the fourth time he had been
summoned, and he did not hurry.

"I thought you were never coming,"
exclaimed the visitor when the attendant appeared at last. "Are you
nicknamed 'Slowcoach'?"

"No, sir," answered the attendant.
"They call me 'Billiard cue.'"

"Billiard cue!" repeated the visitor,
frowning. Then an inspiration dawned.
"Ah! Because you're such a stick,
I suppose?" he asked.

"Wrong again, sir!" returned the attendant. "It's because I work better with a good tip."—London Answers.

NO INQUEST TO BE HELD INTO GARRISON'S DEATH

Post Mortem Sufficient
to Determined Cause
of Demise

BOYD FOUND IN FIELD

Robbery Theory to be Investigated by Westmoreland
County Authorities

No inquest will be held into the death of James Garrison, a well-known North Charleroi real estate dealer whose body was found in a field near his home early Wednesday morning. The first theory was that the man had been murdered but a post-mortem examination excluded this. His pockets were empty when found and a rigid investigation of supposed robbery will be made by Westmoreland county authorities.

Mrs. Garrison, who with her daughter, Mabel, are the only survivors, says that when her husband left the house he had in his pocket at least $400. It is believed that he died from heart trouble, from which he suffered and was robbed during the night of his money and his watch.

Garrison's mysterious death caused considerable excitement in this neighborhood, where he is well known. He had ruptured a blood vessel July 1 in a street car accident near Castle Shannon. While boarding a local car at Monessen Tuesday evening he lost his footing and fell to the running board of the summer car he was boarding. This may have aggravated the trouble. Friends say that he had complained on Tuesday of not feeling well.

A postmortem was held Wednesday by Deputy Coroner H. W. Day of Westmoreland County; Dr. Cramer of Monessen, and Dr. J. W. Gordon of Belle Vernon. They sent the dead man's heart to Pittsburgh for an examination. The examination revealed serious affection of the heart.

The funeral of Mr. Garrison will be held with services at the M. E. church, Belle Vernon, at 2 o'clock Friday.

Feeney Is Not an Organizer

Ex-Assemblyman Declares
United Mine Worker's
Job is Not for Him

William Feeney a member of the last legislature is not a national organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, at least not if he knows himself. This morning announcement was made in a telegram from Indianapolis that Mr. Feeney had been appointed to that position by National President White. Mr. Feeney contradicted it. He said that far from being a national organizer he was the representative of the United Mine Workers Journal in this district, having taken up the work on August 1. Mr. Feeney is one of the best known miners in the national organization. He was a teller at the last convention and was instrumental in it in preventing fraud in the counting of votes.

PHILLIPS TO REDS

Charleroi Man May Become Manager of Cincinnati Nationals

HE HAS HAD EXPERIENCE

Inside information is that next year the Cincinnati Reds of the National League will have Bill Phillips of Charleroi as their pilot. Manager Garry Hermann is on the lookout for a man who will bring the bunting to the Ohio town and is said to consider Bill Phillips the first best man.

Hermann and Phillips are close friends, the latter having been the mainstay of the Reds pitching staff for several seasons. Hermann is said to have been attracted to Bill by the wonderful records that individual has been making since managing in the minors.

It has been well known by every follower of the national game that Hermann is dissatisfied with the showing made by his Reds this season. Clark Griffiths has been the managers, but it is said he sacrifices real baseball for speed.

Phillips managed successfully the East Liverpool team in the O and P. league and the Wheeling team in the Central league. He is managing Youngstown this year in the O and P. He landed buntings for both the East Liverpool and Wheeling teams and has his Youngstown team in second place in his year.

With Phillips at the helm and plenty of money to back him Cincinnati could land a winning team. Phillips has played ball 24 years and served his time in the big league. About the only other man mentioned thus far as a managerial possibility for Cincinnati is Cy Young, but Phillips has the advantage of him in that he has had considerable ability at managing whereas Young has had none.

FIREMEN'S PARADE FEATURE OF WEEK

Forty Companies in Parade Dress Participate-
Officers Elected at Business
Session Wednesday

Today is the big day at the Firemen's convention at Monongahela, the chief features being the parade this afternoon in which about 40 companies participated. All were in parade dress. Capt. E. W. Hartland was chief marshal.

J. B. McCune of Donora presented a bill Wednesday to be put on the minutes of the association to be presented to the next Legislature. It provides that firemen be exempt from personal and poll tax only when they have been in continuous active service from three to five years.

The following officers were elected: President, Samuel Steel, Wilkinsburg; vice presidents, J. J. McFadden, Stowe township, Allegheny county; George L. Ewert, Carnegie; Mark F. Roberts, Carrick; secretary, W. H. Sharrah, Braddock; treasurer, James H. Steel, Wilkinsburg; delegate to state convention at York, Samuel Cunningham; alternate, Alexander M. Lea, Wilkinsburg.

The motor boat regatta Wednesday afternoon was a feature. At midnight the "Ancient Order of Hoots" and the Ku Klux Klan gave a parade of owls and goblins.

MONEY IS DONATED

School Board Appropriates $100 to Carry on Playgrounds Work

The sum of $100 was appropriated by the school board at a meeting held Wednesday evening to be used by the Playgrounds association for carrying on playground work. The amount was the first donated by the school board for the playgrounds. Council appropriated $800 before the playgrounds were opened. All members of the school board were present with the exception of J. M. Hill.

The matter of supplementary readers for the schools was taken up and a number of readers ordered.

Owing to the fact, it is stated, that the tax collector's bond was not properly made out, it was not accepted, but will be taken up at a later date, after corrections have been made.

DEEDS RECORDED FOR LOCAL PROPERTY

Deeds have been filed for record at the recorder's office at Washington as follows:

August 1911—Margaret E. Spence and husband of Saint John county, Kansas, to John Uhlman of North Charleroi, lot of ground on Water street, North Charleroi; consideration $1,700.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR MISS PARSONS

August ninth was the birthday of Miss Georgene Parsons and her little niece Edna Georgene Bowers, and the event was fittingly celebrated with a theatre party at the Palace Theatre and refreshments at Wagner's. The affair was a surprise arranged by Miss Parsons' mother and sisters. The guests who were the most intimate girl friends of those in whose honor the party was given, met at Miss Parsons' home, went to the theatre and afterwards to Wagner's where a lunch consisting of cake, ice cream and candy was served. The ice was moulded in the form of candles which were lighted when served. Later in the evening they returned to the home, and one of the young ladies, who has made a study of palmistry, read the future of each guest.

Benefit Game Draws Well.

The benefit game between the Managers and the Executive Members drew a good sized crowd to the ball ground Wednesday evening and a snug sum was realized. The report will be made later of the money cleared, the funds to be used by the Associated Board of Charities for carrying on work among the poor.

and Christina Frye

Arrangements are being made for the eleventh annual reunion of the descendants of Benjamin and Christina Frye, to be held at Eldora Park on September 2. Charles O. Frye of Charleroi president of the reunion association has appointed committees for the affair, and has sent out notices announcing the reunion. The committees are:

Committee on sports: Ira J. Duvall, Harry Frye, Landray Cooper, Alden Shannon, Robert McGowan. Committee on music—Misses Joan Furner, Clara Cooper, Price G. Frye, Eva Allen.

Committee on tables—Mrs. Isaac Morris, Mrs. John Cooper, Mrs. John Moffitt, Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. C. K. Frye, Mrs. S. E. Wilson, Miss Tina Furner, Mrs. S. J. Richardson, Mrs. George C. Boggs, Mrs. Samuel Nelson, Mrs. Isaac Carson, Mrs. D. R. Duvall.

The Frye family is one of the oldest and best known in Western Pennsylvania, and the descendants of Benjamin and Christina Frye number several hundred.

Benjamin and Christina Frye settled in Frederick county, Virginia more than a century ago, when that country was a wilderness. Their children settled largely not far from the place of their birth, but today their descendants are much scattered, with the largest portion of the family in Western Pennsylvania.

United States Steamer Slackwater this week went from Lock No. 3, at Elizabeth where repairs have just been completed to Lock No. 2, to do similar repair work there. The system at Lock No. 3 is now in the best of shape. Some time will likely be spent at Lock No. 2 making repairs to the locks and wickets. A new guide cribb is in course of construction and will be put in place.

United States Dredge No. 1 has been fitted out with a new boiler at the government boat yards at North Charleroi and will resume work at Lock No. 1. United States Steamer Swan has returned from an excursion up the Monongahela river as far as Fairmont. Government officials were aboard on a tour of inspection.

VAUDEVILLE AT PICNIC

New Feature Arranged
for the Business Men's Outing

PERFORMER IS BOOKED

As a special feature at this year's picnic of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, vaudeville attractions will be furnished at Eldora Park. On Wednesday W. C. Clark who is in charge of the matters of entertainment booked Eno McSeaton a flying trapeze and Roman ring performer to give exhibitions at the park afternoon and evening.

McSeaton's act is performed, it is stated, about 20 feet above ground and such a thing as a net is unknown to him. His act has been described by those who have seen him as a dare-devil feat. McSeaton is a western boy and belongs to a family of performers. His father and mother were both performers.

The idea of having vaudeville at the business men's picnic is a new one. Committees are getting all matters in readiness for the outing to be held next Wednesday. Posters and bills have been placed in different towns along the valley and a big crowd is expected. Plenty of entertainment will be furnished at the park.

Karl Keffer and H. W. Thirkeld, staff correspondents of the Pittsburgh Dispatch were in Charleroi a short while this morning and called on friends here.

Notice.

A reward of $25.00 will be paid to any person or persons furnishing information leading to the arrest and conviction of any one found trespassing on reservoir property.

Loss of Between $7,000 and

and Contents Insured.

While Mrs. Meyer Miller and members of her family were at Eldora Park Wednesday evening enjoying the picnic of the Hebrew Association of the valley, their home at Monessen was burned. The fire starting at about 9 o'clock, was of unknown origin.

All the firemen but two of the Monessen department were at Monongahela attending the firemen's convention there it is stated, and when the alarm was rung, it required the services of volunteers to fight the conflagration. The building was owned by Mrs. Libby Kramer, a widow woman of Monessen.

Full insurance was carried on the building by Mrs. Kramer. It is stated, and on the contents by Mrs. Miller. The damage will amount to $7,000 or $8,000.

ITALIANS PROVE ST DEPOSITORS IN POSTAL BANK

Italians are the best depositors in the postal savings bank which was recently established at Canonsburg, according to the Canonsburg Notes. It says:

"The 'gooda Italia man' is beginning to bring forth his money from trunk and sock and deposit it with Uncle Sam in his local postal savings bank. Circulars printed in foreign languages, explaining the workings of the new banking system, were received by postmaster T. M. Rees last week and these have been distributed among the foreign speaking patrons of the local postoffice. To date Italians are the heaviest depositors. Some of these people, however, are not altogether pleased with the workings of the postal banking system. They want to deposit more than the government allows, that is, no depositor can put in more than $100 in any calendar month. Some of the foreign speaking people deposited $100 in July and $100 in August. Now they must wait until September before making another deposit."

An Unnecessary Adjunct!

NOURISHING BREAD.

The council of the Bread and Food
Reform Leagues of England has issued a manifesto directing attention
to the importance of using a more
nourishing bread than ordinary fine
wheat bread, especially as food for
children. "Chemistry proves," says
the council "that the whole of the
wheat grain contains more nutriment
than the part usually made into fine
white flour. Experiments made on
the human digestion in America con-
firm the statements of the Bread and
Food Reform League that more protein—flesh-forming material—can be
assimilated from whole wheat meal
when it is ground to a uniform fineness than when coarsely ground, while experiments in Germany show that from 600 grammes of finely
ground wheat meal the body assim-
ilated nearly two and a half times
more of the mineral substances which
form bones and teeth, and which
nourish the brain, nerves and tissues
than from a similar weight of fine
white flour."

FUN IN THE HOME.

Whatever your lot in life, keep joy
with you, says Orison Swett Marsden
in Success Magazine. It is a great
healer. Sorrow, worry, jealousy,
envy, bad temper, create friction and
grind away the delicate human machine so that the brain loses its functioning.

Half the misery in the world would
be avoided if the people would make
a business of having plenty of fun at
home instead of running everywhere
in search of it.

"No For Rest and Fun." "No
Business Troubles Allowed Here."
These are good home building mot-
toes.

When you have had a perplexing
day, when things have gone wrong
with you and you go home at night
exhausted, discouraged blue, instead
of making your home miserable by
going over your troubles and trials

just bury them. Instead of dragging
them home and making yourself and
your family unhappy with them and spilling the whole evening, just lock
everything that is disagreeable in
your office.

Just resolve that your home shall be
a place for bright pictures and pleasant memories, kindly feelings toward
everybody and "a corking good time"
generally. If you do this you will be surprised to see how your vocation or
business wrinkles will be ironed out
in the morning and how the crooked
things will be straightened.

Civilizing a "Red" an.

The following is from "The Soul of
the Indian," a book by Dr. Charles
Alexander Eastman himself an Indian.
"Long before I ever read of Christ
or saw a white man I had learned from an untutored but wise sense of morality. With the love of dear nature herself she taught me things simply but of mighty import. I knew God
I perceived what was right and I saw
and loved what is really beautiful. Civilization has not taught me anything
better. As a child I understood how to give. I have forgotten a thing since I became civilized. I have the eternal life, whereas I now have the eternal death. Any pretty people was kinder to me than, every growing in the object of reverence. Now I was in with the white man, before a painted landscape
whose value is painted in dollars. This
the Indian is reconstructed, as the natural rocks are ground to powder and
made into artificial blocks which may
be built into the walls of modern society."

Bigness of Big Ben.

Big Ben, which marks the hours for
parliament at the top of the clock tower
at Westminster is bigger than it appears from below. Looking at the dial
of Big Ben from the northern foreway
of Great George street or from the Thames embankment, it appears as if
its diameter might be equal to the
space that a man of medium size could
cover with outstretched arms. As a matter of fact, however, the diameter
of the dial is twenty three feet. From
the ground the minute marks on the
dial look like ordinary minute marks
and as if they were close together.
Really they are a foot apart. The numerals are two feet long. The minute
hand, with its counter balance—the
heavy piece of metal that projects beyond the center of the dial—is fifteen
feet in length. This hand is so massive
that during a snowstorm the clock is
sometimes retarded by the weight of
the flakes that alight on it.—London
Mail.

He Took the Cue.

He was a man who gave little and
got much. Today for instance, he had
got a clothes brush, a basin of water,
a towel and a shine, and he had given
nothing at all.

Tr-r-r-r-r! went his bedroom bell.
The hotel attendant smiled sourly.
This was the fourth time he had been
summoned, and he did not hurry.

"I thought you were never coming,"
exclaimed the visitor when the attendant appeared at last. "Are you
nicknamed Slowcoach?"

"No, sir," answered the attendant.
"They call me 'Billard cue.'"
"Billard cue?" repeated the visitor,
frowning. Then an inspiration dawned.
"Ah! Because you're such a stick,
I suppose?" he asked.

"Wrong again, sir," returned the at-

The Finishing Touch

"No," says the eminent actress earnestly "I cannot approve of the fashion that so many members of my profession have of being photographed continually."

The reporter makes some tenuous
notes and she continues:
"It seems to me that because one is on the stage is no reason why he or she should consider his or her face
of absorbing interest to the public."

She continues for half a column and as the reporter is stowing away his notebook she smiles sweetly and says:
"Here is one of my latest photographs for you to use with the interview I sat for it only yesterday so you may be sure it has never before been reproduced.—Judge

GOVERNOR GETS CUBS

Western Admirer Sends Gov. Tener Present of Growlers

Two young and lively American tiger cubs born, bred and captured in Arizona were delivered in a large and well secured crate at the executive mansion, Harrisburg, Tuesday consigned to Governor John K. Tener by a western admirer, E. P. Douglas of Douglas, Arizona.

The cubs were hungry and noisy when they arrived at the mansion which is in the most exclusive residential portion of Harrisburg's river front and the latter who is boss of the house in the absence of Governor and Mrs. Tener, now in the New England states at first thought the express man was trying to play a joke on him. Finally it was made apparent that the live stock was consigned to the governor and that it was destined for the mansion.

As there is no menagerie attached to the governor's official home and not even a chicken yard the crate was taken to the rear of the property and put in the stables which since the departure of the Sturges are used as a garage, the present governor not keeping horses.

Just what will be done with the cubs no one knows. The attendants are feeding them at arm's length and awaiting word to send them to a zoological garden.

Private Secretary Gaither announced the arrival of the cubs in a letter to the Governor, and asking what should be done.

Irving's Modesty.
Fuller McIlhenny, who was for several years in the company of Sir Henry Irving, first coming to America in his support, told a characteristic story of the great English actor.

"We were discussing Tennyson in the breakfast room of the Lyceum one night," said Mr. McIlhenny, "when Sir Henry came over and joined in the conversation. 'Ah, yes,' he said, 'Tennyson. To be sure I know him. Clever chap, yes, but vain. One night Tennyson and I were walking down Piccadilly together, and as we passed a crowd on the street corner several of the men took off their hats and bowed. 'Do you know Tennyson thought they were bowing to him. Extraordinary! Yes, clever chap, but vain, you know.'"

What He Was Showing.
A young man sitting in a subway car with legs crossed and one foot showing a highly polished shoe and silk sock extended so far into the aisle as to make it almost impossible for people to pass without coming in contact with the protruding member was brought to a sense of his disregard for others by three young women who sat opposite. One said, "I wonder if he is showing his foot or his shoe?" The second said loud enough to be heard above the car chatter and of the amusement of others, "I think he wants to show his clocked socks—watch it." "No," said the third, "he's only showing his bad manners." The foot came down and was lost in the crowd which got off at the next station.—New York Tribune.

Why Thackeray Was Moved to Tears.
A lady, an intimate friend and a frequent visitor at the Thackerays home, called late one afternoon. She was shown into the study, and on entering perceived the novelist himself seated at his desk, his head bowed upon his arms. Fearing she was intruding in the presence of some great and unknown grief, she paused, hesitating. Then, thinking she might be of some help or at least express her sympathy, she stepped forward. Just then Thackeray looked up. His shoulders were shaking, the tears streaming from his eyes.

"Little Nell is dead," he said brokenly.

"Little Nell?" his visitor interrogated.

"Yes, Little Nell," was the answer. "She is dead. I've just been reading it." Before him on his desk lay an open copy of "Old Curiosity Shop."—Ladies' Home Journal.

When Lobsters Were Common.
The lobster was not always the aristocrat of the summer table and the most costly of delicacies. A man who used to live in Maine, but now lives in Ohio, has this reminiscence, according to a writer in the Cleveland Leader: "One day here in Cleveland I took a friend out to luncheon, and suddenly the old appetite for lobster came back to both of us, as we were both born on the Maine coast. We had two full portions, and the bill was $2. And as a boy I've seen a lobster caught on the wharf, bargaining with a fisherman for his lobster catch of the day, and often, for $2 I've seen the lobster fisherman turn over to my father the entire catch, and the whole boatload—250 or 300 big, black lobsters, perhaps—would be dumped on the landing and taken back on our old farm as feed for the pigs."

MANAGERS WIN GAME

Executive Members Go Down to Defeat in Four Innings

Sore limbs and stoved fingers are familiar among the executive members, managers and assistant managers of the Charleroi church league. The reason of it all is that on Wednesday evening the Executive Members and the Managers engaged in deadly conflict as a poor benefit over at the ball grounds and those who didn't get stoved on the digits either got hit on their limbs with the blasted ball, or else took it out in running. All the players gave exhibitions of sprinting, for everybody got on base and attempts to steal, rarely unsuccessful, were a common occurrence.

The Managers won, the scorer has it by the score of 16 to 11. And all these runs came in four brief innings. "Dick" Roberts started to leave for the Executives but was in turn transferred. Others who occupied the box at intervals with more or less credit (principally less) were: Dr. Edwin McKay, W. D. Pollock, John Cornell and Prof. I. T. Daniel.

The Managers had their share of vaudeville too. Carroll Cummings pitched awhile until Manager Jack Rickey got a hint that he was tired and called in Harry Booth from middle field.

Both teams gave their pitchers rotten support, thank you. Pittsburg scouts were present, it is stated, looking for material for Fred Clarke's men and they picked out Prof. Daniel who is some player. They also thought well of Berdell Clutter—for Boston. Jesse Johnston, D. C. Whitlatch and Swearingen played excellent games in the field, not having much to do. John Corne and a red pieper were some punkins as third base players and adorned the corner with much grace, exhibiting every symptom of polite drawing room ability. Behind the bat were Geo. Barnett and George Kline. To say which did the worst would be a difficult matter. Joe Stech gave imitations of Hans Wagner on short-stop and stopped a ball once. Paul Ryland, who is secretary of the league and minus as to height, deported himself seemingly on second for the managers. Dr. McKay caught the eyes of the Pittsburg scouts and it is stated he is also slated for Boston. Nothing too mean can be said about Chalfant, alleged first baseman for the managers. Some people made a request that the box score be published and below it is appended:

Considerable Lobster.
The largest lobster taken off the Maine coast for a number of years was caught recently by the Portland fishing steamer Carrie and Mildred. The crustacean weighed a strong seven pounds and was nearly three feet in length. The legs were nearly as large as the claws of an ordinary lobster, while the claws were huge affairs.

Whistler's Eccentricities.
Whistler's remarkable genius is no doubt responsible for his many eccentricities. He quarreled indiscriminately with friend and foe, and for him the public were a set of ignoramus who had no right to any opinion whatever.

Especially well known is his quarrel with John Ruskin, who in his "Ars Clariviva" had heaped scorn on one of Whistler's "Nocturnes" in the following language: "I have seen and heard much of cockney impudence before now, but never expected to hear a cockney ask 200 guineas for dinging a pot of paint in the public's face." The artist promptly sued for damages, and in the celebrated trial which followed he was awarded one farthing, which coin he triumphantly wore as a watch chain ever afterward.

In his art work, as in his own personal appearance, Whistler was fastidious. His palettes were beautifully wiped, his brushes faultlessly kept, and as for his general behavior it was foreign, one may even say exotic.

Where Bluebeard Lived.
Most of our readers have heard of Bluebeard, the enterprising gentleman who made a hobby of marriage and had a way of his own for getting rid of superfluous wives. Probably very few people, however, know that the story has any sort of basis in fact.
